

WHEN IN MADRID

MADRID is one of Europe's foremost cultural capitals with a collection of art museums second to none. Strolling the galleries of the unparalleled Prado, you'll view the works of such native artists as Velazquez, Goya and many other masters. In the evening, the capital comes to life with a near endless array of performing arts, including the famous Opera House. A varied selection of restaurants offer specialties from throughout Spain to satisfy the most discriminating palate and the most demanding pocketbook. Madrid is lively, splendid and full of timeless treasures...evoking passion, invigorating life, and inspiring memories at every turn.
