RIO DE JANEIRO, with a magnificent blend of breathtaking beaches, spectacular mountains, lush rainforests, the historical and the cultural, unsurprisingly one of the most visited cities in the Southern Hemisphere. Part of Rio has been named a UNESCO World Heritage Site as a Cultural Landscape and its harbor as one of the Seven Natural Wonders of the World. Lose yourself in a vibrant samba at Carnaval or a game at the Maracanã, one of the world’s largest football stadiums. Whatever your pleasure, Rio is the paradise you simply must visit.
THE IGUASSU FALLS, 275 waterfalls of the Iguassu River straddling the jungle borders between Brazil and Argentina, are one of nature’s most spectacular creations. A 2-hour flight connects Rio, Sao Paulo and Buenos Aires to the city of Iguassu and both sides of the Falls. The Brazilian side is farther from the tumblers but delivers a panorama and better view of the greatest section, Devil’s Throat. Here, 14 falls combine in the 330-foot fall, pounding the water below with such force that there is a constantly rising huge rainbow-spanned cloud of spray. The Argentinian side, however, is more pleasant to explore, and offers such a close-up of the thundering water that most visitors wear waterproof raincoats. The Falls are shared by two Iguassu parks—the National Park in Brazil and the Nacional Park in Argentina—each has been designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site. You must visit both!

NEW RIO DE JANEIRO & THE AMAZON

8 Days/7 Nights FROM $1,949 DAILY ARRIVALS

MANAUS is the capital of the state of Amazonas in northern Brazil, once the richest city in South America due to its rubber industry. Situated in the middle of the rainforest, it was difficult to access except by boat or airplane. This isolation helped protect its nature as well as its culture, which, more than any other urban area of Brazil, preserves the habits of the Native Brazilian tribes. Manaus is the hub of tourism for the rivers, jungle lodges and river cruises, and is the main entrance to the Brazilian Amazon. Few places in the world abound in such a richness of plant, bird, insect, and fish life. The Amazon represents half of the planet’s remaining rainforests and home to more than one-third of the world’s species. Visitors can explore the riverbanks and streams, swim and canoe in placid lakes or simply walk in the lush forest.

DAY 1 | RIO DE JANEIRO Arrive in Rio de Janeiro and transfer to the hotel. Rio de Janeiro was Brazil’s capital from 1763 to 1960 and is now the capital of the state of Rio de Janeiro. Ideally located between the mountains and the sea, it is no wonder that Rio is one of the most visited cities in the world. It is blessed with a magnificent shoreline, beautiful white sand beaches, numerous museums and cultural attractions, a lively night life and a joyous people. With good reason, Rio is known as the “Ciudad Maravilhosa” or “Marvelous City.”

DAY 2 | RIO DE JANEIRO Your tour starts with a visit to one of the most famous landmarks in the world. After a scenic drive along Rodrigo de Freitas Lagoon, you will arrive at the bottom of the Corcovado Hill. • Full day tour of Salt Lake and Incahuasi and Isla Pescado

These salt flats in Bolivia are a natural wonder that are not only awe-inspiring, but also seem to be the best place to play with perspective. With reflections that play tricks on the eye and constant bright sunshine, Salar de Uyuni is a veritable dreamland for the photographer.

Day 1 | Uyuni | Salt Lake & Incahuasi | Colchani
Arrival in Uyuni airport with immediate departure on a full day tour of Salt Lake and Incahuasi and Isla Pescado. Uyuni is the largest salt lake on Earth, covering nearly 5,000 square miles on the Bolivian Andean High plateau. This is a weird, bone-dry landscape of spiky cacti, flat horizons and all-encompassing silence. Dotted with lakes tinted by minerals and algae, patrolled by colorful flamingos, this is surely the most unearthly place on earth. At Isla Pescado, also called “Inca Wasi,” discover an oasis with formations of algae and fossils, covered by thousands of giant columnar cacti that can live more than a hundred years and grow to more than 36 feet tall. Needless to say, this other-worldly landscape is heaven for photographers. Overnight at hotel. (B, Picnic, D)

Day 2 | Colchani | Uyuni | Thunupa Volcano | Colchani | Uyuni
After breakfast, enjoy an excursion to the small village of Tahua, at the foot of Thunupa Volcano. Stroll through the village and hike to the cave of the Coquesa Mummies, a group of Uru Chipaya people from 1200 years ago, who may have died from poisonous gases seeping up from underground. Thanks to the bone-dry conditions, they are remarkably well preserved. After the tour, we go back to the hotel. (B,D)

Day 3 | Colchani | Uyuni | La Paz to USA (Or Extend Your Stay)
Transfer to the airport for your flight back to La Paz. Upon arrival, transfer to your hotel. (B)

Important! From December to March, during the rainy season, the Salt Flats and the Red & Green Lagoon can become flooded and it won’t be possible to visit some attractions, such as Incahuasi and Thunupa.

We strongly recommend visiting La Sebastiana Museum, former house of the Nobel Laureate poet Pablo Neruda. (B)

DAY 3 | VALPARAÍSO | CACHAPOAL VALLEY | COLCHAGUA VALLEY | SANTA CRUZ

In the morning, visit the Cachapoal valley (122 miles on paved road) where the climate is dry and sunny and where Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, and Carménère predominate. Here you can tour several facilities and cellars and learn more about wine making. Some wineries you may visit include Lagar De Brezana, Chateau Los Boldos, Porta, Anakena, Altair, Gracia and Casas Del Toqui. In the afternoon, drive to Colchagua valley (56 miles on paved road), renowned as one of the most fertile wine valleys and producing world-class red wines. Some of the many wineries found in this valley are Viu Manent, Santa Laura, Bisquert, Mont Gras, and Montes. (B)

DAY 4 | SANTA CRUZ | COLCHAGUA VALLEY | SANTA CRUZ

In the morning, visit "Los Espiritus de Colchagua" just steps from the hotel. The House of Spirits of Colchagua is a magical place that preserves the age-old tradition of mixing fruits and herbs with alcohol, giving life to these tasty "mistelas" (spirits). Then, visit the Colchagua Museum, one of the most comprehensive private museums in Chile, with an interesting collection of insects trapped in amber and pre-Hispanic artifacts. After lunch visit the Santa Cruz Winery (15 miles on paved road). The winery has a cable car to the top of a hill where reproductions of houses of the Mapuche, Rapa Nui and Aymara people give insight into the lives of these indigenous societies. The setting, the sweeping surroundings. Located in the lush Catarpe Valley of the Salt Mountain Range, just over a mile from the plaza of San Pedro, Alto Atacama’s design was influenced by local village architecture and conceived to blend seamlessly into its environment and appear as a part of the terracotta-colored ridge that rises behind it. The setting, the sweeping views, the tranquility and silence, and the hotel’s wonderful outdoor lounge spaces make Alto Atacama a destination unto itself, and unlike any other hotel property in the region. Environmental sustainability and a strong connection with the local culture have put Alto Atacama in a category of its own.

GUEST ROOMS:

ACTIVITIES:

Among the more than 35 excursions include visits to the Tatio Geysers, swimming in the aquamarine salt waters of Laguna Chaxa; photo safaris to high Andean terrain; watching the sun set from Valley of the Moon; and viewing petroglyphs etched on rocks in the Rainbow Valley. The Atacama Desert is an adventure traveler’s dream destination, with trekking through lunar-like landscapes; mountain biking through the salt-encrusted ridges of Death Valley or walking across sand dunes; and, for those with the physical strength and ability, climbing up one of four volcanoes. The region is a living archeological museum, with Inca and Atacameño ruins just outside the door of the property.

Travel to the end of the world, then go even further to the navel of the world. The southernmost tip of the South American continent, PATAGONIA is one of the remotest spots on earth, wild and rugged with breathtaking landscapes. About the size of France, it has fewer people per square mile than the Western Sahara. Yet, even more remote is Easter Island, halfway between Chile and Tahiti. Known for centuries as the navel of the world, it boasts the world’s most enigmatic archaeological mysteries. Mystical and magnetic, these are once-in-a-lifetime – maybe more! – adventures.
DAY 1 | PUERTO NATALES  Arrive in Punta Arenas and transfer to the bus station for bus transport through the Pampa to the city of Puerto Natales, gateway to the Parque Nacional Torres del Paine, where you will spend the night.

DAY 2 | FULL DAY TOUR TO BALMACEDA & SERRANO GLACIERS’ NAVIGATION  Morning transfer to pier to board your ship. As you sail along, see Guanacos Island and the Fjord of the Last Hope before arriving at Barmaceda Glacier. Here you may spot cormorants and sea lions amid its rocky outcrops. Later, we visit the Serrano Glacier, with its sheer walls of ancient blue ice and massive icebergs. Hike through the lush forest to the foot of the glacier, then have lunch and explore some more before sailing back to port. (B,L)

DAY 3 | FULL DAY TOUR TO TORRES DEL PAINE NATIONAL PARK  Our first visit today is to Milodón Cave Natural Monument. In the largest cave see a replica of the Milodón, a giant herbivore that went extinct around the late Pleistocene era. Visit National Park Torres del Paine with its glacial peaks and granite monoliths. Explore Amarga Lagoon overlooking the 7800-foot high Horns of Paine, the 5-foot Saito Grande waterfall, and glacially-fed Grey Lake. After lunch we return to Puerto Natales. (B,L)

DAY 4 | PATAGONIA | SANTIAGO  At agreed time, transfer to the airport for your flight to Santiago. (B)

DAY 5 | SANTIAGO | EASTER ISLAND  Board your flight to Easter Island. Arrival and transfer to selected hotel. Enjoy the remainder of the day at leisure. (B)

DAY 6 | FULL DAY ANAKENA AND THE LOST CULTURE OF RAPA NUI  Today we visit the fabled Ahu Vaihu and Akahanga temples – stone platforms where the massive Moai (monolithic figures carved from volcanic stone) and Pukao (the hats on some Moai statues) were assembled. Next it’s on to Rano Raraku, home to 397 Moai in various states of production. Then see Ahu Tongariki, a ceremonial platform with 15 huge Moai, and the largest transported Moai – 30 feet long and 85 tons. Then visit Anakena, the island’s best beach with a row of Moai with their backs mysteriously turned to the sea. (B)

DAY 7 | HALF DAY ORONGO, TANGATA MANU CEREMONIAL  We begin with a morning visit to the Ana Kai Tangata, an eerie cave hidden amid sea cliffs with an elaborate series of birds etched into the black rock. Afterwards we visit Vinapu, an ahu exhibiting very advanced stonemasonry, featuring precisely fitted large basalt slabs that continue to perplex archaeologists. Discover the Rano Kau Volcano then see the remains of Orongo, the village where the sacred Birdman ceremony was performed. (B)

DAY 8 | HALF DAY AHI AKIVI, THE SEVEN MOAIS  Delve into Ahu Akivi, one of the few sacred places in Easter Island where the Moai actually face the sea. Legend says they represent the seven explorers who were sent by King Hotu Matu’a before his colonization voyage. Continue on through the Ana Te Pahu caverns, lava tubes that provided housing to the inhabitants and refuge from 19th century slave drivers. Then see Puna Pau, a quarry inside the crater where the red stone Pukao crowns were made between 1250 and 1500 AD. (B)

Vibrant and diverse, BOGOTÁ is Colombia’s capital and commercial back-bone. This bustling metropolis mixes old and new, trendy and traditional, majestic and charming. Home to a dazzling array of museums, churches, colonial mansions and grand buildings, Bogotá observes a fine balance between historical past and forward momentum. Located in central Colombia at 8,660 ft. high in the Cordillera Oriental of the Andes Mountains, the world’s third largest capital, Bogotá was founded in August 1538 by the Spanish conqueror Gonzalo Jiménez de Quesada. Captured by Simón Bolívar in 1819, it was the capital of the independent nation of Great Colombia that also included Ecuador, Panama, and Venezuela, and became the capital of present-day Colombia in 1830 when Great Colombia was dissolved. Today it rewards visitors with a heady cocktail of pre-Hispanic and colonial cultural attractions, hip enclaves of urban cool, world-class dining and exclusive shopping.

Medellín has had a remarkable turnaround and is now one of the nation’s most important cities in business, politics, fashion and night life. Known as the city of the never-ending springtime, Medellín is also the hometown of the artist Fernando Botero, whose oversized depictions of Colombian life, people and world issues are exhibited throughout the world. A donation of statues given by Botero himself is exhibited in one of the city’s main squares. The city is also famous for its cable car, a remarkable piece of engineering, emblematic of how local government revived a previously underdeveloped part of the city.

Founded in 1533, CARTAGENA was the Caribbean gateway port used by the Spanish to store riches plundered from the interior before shipment to Spain. Naturally, the city was a tempting target for buccaneers and pirates, who attempted to seize it many times. Most notable was Sir Francis Drake, the English privateer, who accepted payment of 10 million pesos in 1586 in return for not levelling the city. Subsequently, plans were made to fortify the city and work on the defensive walls began. These centuries-old walls still stand today and mark the boundary between the old and new parts of town. Now a World Heritage Site and redolent with bygone derring-do, the Old Town is fairy-tale perfect with cobbled alleys, overhanging balconies dripping bougainvillea and massive churches casting shadows over the plazas. Cartagena’s rich history, diverse culture and vibrant energy will delight you. Passionate and dynamic, Cartagena mixes African rhythms and indigenous soul with Spanish colonial splendour in an intoxicating cultural cocktail. You will fall in love with this amazing destination!

- NEW Insider’s View of Panama
Beautiful PANAMA CITY is the most cosmopolitan capital in Central America. Founded in 1519 by the Spanish, it quickly became an important center of government and church authorities, only to be destroyed in 1671 by Welsh pirate Henry Morgan, later the governor of Jamaica. Gone forever were several beautiful churches, thousands of colonial homes and hundreds of warehouses stocked with foreign goods. Panama City today has several major attractions, among which are these popular four: Panamá Viejo on the eastern edge, whose scattered stone ruins cover a large area; “downtown” or the “new” city of Casco Viejo (Old Compound), re-built by the Spanish just a few miles southwest of the original site, with narrow cobblestone streets and a mix of architectural styles; the lovely residential suburbs with gracious villas, modern hotels, gardens and pools and of course, the 48-mile long Panama Canal, connecting the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans.

The blooming soul of the northern Amazon Rainforest is among the most protected biodiversity swaths remaining today in the region, and no other destinations in Peru offer the kind of unbarred access to some of Earth’s most elusive creatures and plants. Just imagine going on a morning boat ride skirting the edges of the river in search of cackling macaws and tree sloths slowly waking up to begin their days, then returning to your vessel with a chilled local fruit juice waiting for you. Or, how about swimming in a mirror-like lagoon that is so calm that it seems preface to a storm, yet instead, you’re greeted by rare pink river dolphins jumping up to say “hello”! Finally, what better way is there to close out your evening fishing for red-bellied piranhas during a fiery sunset? These and much more are some of details that have been anticipated by the exceptional crew of the Delfins, whose operations have been painstakingly considered to cater to even the most discerning and seasoned explorers who seek styled, boutique experiences along with authenticity and charm, and gourmet meals.

All of our itineraries have been carefully crafted to showcase the best flora and fauna that the Marañon and Ucayali Rivers in the Pacaya Samiria National Reserve have to boast, along with offering ideal soft adventure excursions for travelers to further discover the secrets of the Peruvian Amazonia. Itineraries vary based on the rainy season or low water, or dry season.
